

This is a good rule, and I hope that you make it final in December, 2003. One thing that needs clarification: "the entire seat directly behind the child wearing the seat-mounted vest must be either unoccupied or occupied by restrained passengers". Would a lap belt qualify as "restraining" the passenger in the seat behind the child wearing the seat-mounted vest?